

Table of Contents

Appalachian Families: Diverse and Complex	1
Jodi Barnette, Krista Gibson, Jennie Hill, Joyce Kilgore, and Peggy Shifflett
Reaching Out To Promote Women’s Health: West Virginia University’s Center of Excellence in Women’s Health	5
Elaine Bowen and Barbara Howe, West Virginia University
Kentucky’s Appalachian Poetry: Sad Eyes Crying Impressions through Poetry	11
Sonja Castle
One Womans Journey Through Teaching in Higher Education	26
Dr. Sheila M. Chipley
Art From the Garden	35
Traci K. Deveny
Unfortunate Reflections: How Life Experiences of Appalachian Women Parallel Actionable Discriminatory Acts Against Other Minority Women	37
Jill M. Fraley, University of Kentucky School of Law
He Said, She Said: Perceptions and Experiences with the Ohio Tobacco Quit Line	45
Bridget Gaglio, MPH, Holly Whitesides and Erica Ferro, Kaiser Permanente; and Tracey O’Dell, RN, Ohio Tobacco Use Prevention and Control Foundation
God Is In Control: Blending Theology, Folklore and Kinship in Appalachia	54
Linda Hodge Bromberg
The Feminist Consciousness in Llewellyn McKernan’s Poetry	64
Angela LaGrotteria, San Diego State University
Everyday Life: The Raw Material of Aesthetic Experience	72
Phoebe M. Levine, Ph.D., West Virginia State University
“Children of the Past”: Female Reformers and Mountain Women in the Age of the Flapper and The Great Depression	78
Penny Messinger, Daemen College
The Status of African-American and Other Black Women in Jefferson County, Alabama	98
Theresa I. Myadze, Wright State University
“There Again, Common Sense”: Ethnography, Literacy, Pedagogy and the Classroom	107
Jacqueline Preston
Tools For Change: Building Houses; Building Self-Esteem. Young Women Excelling In Non-traditional Occupations: A Panel Discussion with Young Women Working Construction in Rural Appalachia	122
Jan Rezek, West Virginia Institute of Technology and Panel Members: Melissa Mitchell, Krystal Maynor, Stacy Richmond, Sue Navicki, Becky Stark, Heather Plumley; and Jackie Asbury, Southern Appalachian Labor School
A Witness To Death: The Journal of Emily Nash, Professional Mourner in 19th Century Geauga County, OH....	130
Molly M. Sergi, Kent State University Geauga Campus

Table of Contents

A Comprehensive Model of Success in Central Appalachian Higher Education Institutions: Gender Differences in Alumni Success	149
Cynthia Smith, University of Southern Indiana in collaboration with Lisa S. McLeod-Simmons, West Virginia Wesleyan College
Amish Women in Appalachia: Traditions and Trends	165
Gretchen H. Waltman, Social Work Consultant and Trainer
Fitting In, Breaking Out	174
Hilary M. Post, Winner of Young Appalachian Writers Competition
Greater Cincinnati’s Women Professional Storytellers: Life History Informs Performance Content	176
Christina Walton, Morehead State University
Marketing for Micro-tourism and Business Plan Development in Appalachia	Insert
Annie Warmke, Blue Rock Station	