

Ohio University Zanesville Campus Code of Conduct

The following have been designed for the health, safety and well-being of each participant of the VAPA Summer Honors Institute. Complete compliance is expected of each participant. Failure to follow this Code of Conduct could lead to dismissal from the program. In the case of dismissal, program fees are non-refundable.

- All participants are required to participate in the entire schedule of activities and should report to each activity promptly.
- There is to be no smoking, drinking of alcoholic beverages or use of illegal use of drugs in private or public. Violation of this code leads to IMMEDIATE DISMISSAL.
- Dress should be in good taste at all times.
- Curfew is stated in your schedule and must be followed. Participants must be in their rooms at the designated time. Participants should not leave their assigned rooms during curfew, except for a hotel emergency. Violations of this code leads to IMMEDIATE DISMISSAL.
- Noise in the hotel halls and rooms must be kept to a minimum. Music and television must be kept to an acceptable level. Failure to follow these warnings may lead to dismissal.
- Rough play such as pillow fighting is prohibited. Participants are directly responsible for any and all damages to their hotel rooms.
- Windows in rooms are not to be opened by participants. Problems with rooms should be reported to the advisor and/or the front desk.
- Participants are not permitted in rooms other than their assigned rooms, unless invited to enter another room by the occupants of that room. Participants are NOT permitted to enter rooms of the opposite gender for any reason. Violation of this code will lead to IMMEDIATE DISMISSAL.
- Participants must respect the authority of the chaperones and staff at all times.
- Participants should exhibit proper behavior in the hotel while moving from room to room and while moving to various locations. Proper behavior is expected at all times.
